This well-known course by psychologist, Megan de Beyer, returns to BISHOPS in JUNE. Since being launched at Bishops in 2002 it has travelled to every Independent Boys school in SA, several times to San Francisco, Australia & the UK where it has inspired thousands of mothers. “A mother wishes to have a connected, meaningful relationship with her teenage son that allows him autonomy, independence and maleness,” says Megan, founder of the course.

This programme is now online. It offers a chance for you to talk to experts, other mothers & the BSU to discuss the impacts of the lockdown on your son.

7 x ONE HOUR online sessions and includes a workbook. Cost R1,500, a medical aid statement can be issued. Split payment accepted and Paypal available.

Closing date for registration and payment:
22 May 2020

“I benefited from this programme enormously. It has taken away the fear of parenting a teenager. I have learnt new skills for dealing with my two teen boys and have clarified my role as a mother. Megan’s style and approach make it easier to understand.” Michaelhouse Mother. “Thank you so much for the wonderful parenting workshop today. I have come away full of knowledge and inspired to look at my parenting from a slightly different perspective. I am so pleased to have attended.” Karen (Jersey, UK) - 2012
